

Invites you to a free public meeting

Your Right to Know: Oil Train Risks to Metro Milwaukee

Saturday, March 12, 2016

9 a.m. - Gathering

9:30-11:30 a.m. - Program, Q & A

Host: School of Freshwater Sciences
University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee
600 E. Greenfield Ave., Milwaukee

South entrance, elevator to 3rd floor, Room 3080
Street parking and west parking lot available

<http://explosive-crude-by-rail.org>

- Assessing the Risks, Preventing Disaster - Citizens Acting for Rail Safety (CARS-Milwaukee Area)
 - Eric Hansen, writer, and Brian Chiu, PhD, Engineer
- National and State Legislation
 - Benjamin Juarez, Regional Representative, Office of U.S. Senator Tammy Baldwin
 - Jill Billings, State Representative 95th Assembly District (La Crosse)
- Are We Prepared for Oil Train Explosions, Fires or Spills?
 - Rob Ugaste, Fire Chief, City of Wauwatosa, VP WI State Fire Chiefs Association
 - Russell Rivard, Director, City of Milwaukee Division of Special Operations
 - Steve Fronk, Director, City of Milwaukee Emergency Management...
- Questions & Answers

For more information, visit www.lwvmilwaukee.org

Event co-sponsors:

